Regulations Governing the Administration of the Greek Language Proficiency Examinations of the School of Modern Greek, University of Cyprus

A. Applications

1. The School of Modern Greek (SMG) accepts applications for the Greek Language Proficiency Examinations only during the official application period announced by the School.

2. Candidates are eligible to sit the examinations provided that they have reached the age of sixteen (16) years.

3. Examination fees are non-refundable in the event of non-participation in the examinations. The substitution of a candidate by another person is not permitted.

4. Candidates shall provide their personal details exactly as they wish them to appear on their Greek Language Proficiency Certificate, in accordance with their valid proof of identity (identity card or passport). Candidates bear sole responsibility for the accuracy of the personal information they submit.

5. By submitting an application, candidates consent to the processing of their personal data by the School of Modern Greek exclusively for the purposes of organising and administering the examinations and, in anonymised form, for research and academic purposes. Personal data shall be retained for a period of five (5) years and shall thereafter be deleted.

6. The processing of personal data shall be carried out in accordance with the applicable legislation and the University of Cyprus Regulations on the Protection of Personal Data. The SMG shall take all necessary technical and organisational measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and security of personal data. Candidates shall retain all rights provided for under the applicable legislative and regulatory framework.

7. Upon request, the SMG shall consider the implementation of special examination arrangements for candidates with special needs, provided that the candidate informs the SMG in due time and submits the required supporting documentation at least two (2) weeks before the examination date. For this purpose, candidates shall submit an Application Form for Candidates with Special Needs, clearly describing the nature of their special needs and the recommended assessment arrangements as supported by the accompanying medical documentation. The application shall be accompanied by official medical certificates documenting the candidate's special needs. Each request shall be examined individually, and candidates shall be informed in due time of any special arrangements approved for their examination. Such arrangements shall be determined on a case-by-case basis and may include, by way of example, an individual oral examination or additional examination time, where justified by the supporting documentation.

8. The SMG is committed to the principles of equality, equal treatment and inclusion, ensuring that all candidates are assessed fairly, irrespective of any physical, learning or other special needs.

B. During the Examination

1. Candidates shall arrive at the examination venue at least forty-five (45) minutes before the commencement of the Listening Comprehension examination and at least ten (10) minutes before the commencement of the Speaking examination.

2. Candidates arriving after the examination has commenced shall not be admitted to the examination room. During the Listening Comprehension examination, which is administered first, candidates shall not be permitted to enter or leave the examination room, as absolute silence and the simultaneous participation of all candidates are required.

3. No break shall be allowed during the written examinations. In exceptional circumstances and only for a serious reason, a candidate may be permitted to leave the examination room temporarily, provided that he or she is accompanied by an invigilator. During such absence, the answer booklet shall remain in the custody of the invigilator.

4. Candidates shall carry a valid proof of identity (identity card or passport bearing a photograph) and shall present it upon request.

5. Candidates shall comply with the instructions of the invigilators and any other authorised representatives of the School of Modern Greek throughout the examination.

6. Where impersonation or any attempt to misrepresent a candidate's identity is detected, the SMG reserves the right to remove the candidate from the examination venue and prohibit the candidate from participating in the SMG Greek Language Proficiency Examinations for a period of two (2) years, in accordance with its applicable Regulations. Furthermore, impersonation may give rise to criminal or other legal sanctions under the laws of the Republic of Cyprus.

7. The Speaking examination may be audio-recorded exclusively for the purposes of re-evaluation. Audio recordings shall be retained for a period of two (2) years and shall thereafter be deleted.

8. During the examination, candidates may have with them only their Candidate identification sheet, a valid proof of identity and blue ink pens. Candidates are advised to bring more than one blue ink pen. The use of dictionaries or any other printed or electronic reference material is not permitted.

9. Mobile phones, smart watches, smart glasses, tablets, laptop computers and any other electronic or digital devices shall be switched off and placed in the location designated by the invigilators before the examination begins.

10. Any attempt to cheat or any other form of dishonest conduct during the examination constitutes a serious breach of these Regulations and may result in the sanctions provided for under the Regulations of the School of Modern Greek and the University of Cyprus. Depending on the nature and seriousness of the misconduct, administrative or criminal sanctions under the laws of the Republic of Cyprus may also be imposed.

11. All answers shall be written exclusively in blue ink. The use of correction fluid or any other means of altering the answer booklet is not permitted. Errors shall be corrected by drawing a single clear line through the incorrect text.

12. The rough paper provided to candidates forms part of the examination materials and shall be returned together with the answer booklet upon completion of the examination. Candidates are advised to cross out any rough notes before submitting their answer booklet.

13. Candidates shall write their full name and candidate number legibly in the designated sections of the answer booklet. In the Writing examination, candidates shall not write their real name anywhere in the body of their written response.

14. Throughout the examination, candidates shall maintain absolute silence, shall not communicate with one another, and shall not disturb or otherwise interfere with fellow candidates or with the proper conduct of the examination.

15. Failure to comply with these Regulations or with the instructions of the invigilators and other authorised representatives of the SMG may, depending on the nature and seriousness of the breach, result in the cancellation of the candidate's examination. In such cases, examination fees shall not be refunded.

C. Results

1. A Greek Language Proficiency Certificate shall be awarded only to candidates who obtain a minimum score of sixty per cent (60%) in each of the following assessed skills:

(a) Listening Comprehension;

(b) Speaking;

(c) Reading Comprehension;

(d) Writing;

(e) Use of Language (for Levels B2, C1 and C2).

2. Failure to achieve the minimum required score in any assessed skill shall constitute failure in the examination as a whole. In such cases, no Greek Language Proficiency Certificate or other relevant certification shall be issued.

3. The Greek Language Proficiency Certificate shall indicate the candidate's final score on a scale from 0 to 100.

4. Candidates shall be notified of their examination results within two and a half (2.5) months following the completion of the examination session.

D. Re-evaluation

1. Applications for re-evaluation may be submitted only within the period specified by the SMG, namely within ten (10) days from the announcement of the examination results. Each application shall be accompanied by payment of a re-evaluation fee of sixty (60) euros.

2. Candidates shall be informed of the outcome of the re-evaluation within two (2) months from the expiry of the application deadline.

3. Re-evaluation shall be carried out by the Review Committee appointed by the SMG, in the absence of the candidates.

4. A second application for re-evaluation shall not be permitted. The outcome of the re-evaluation shall be final and binding.

E. Collection of Certificates

1. Greek Language Proficiency Certificates may be collected from the offices of the School of Modern Greek (65 Kallipoleos Avenue, 1071 Nicosia, 2nd Floor), Monday to Friday, between 09:00 and 14:00.

2. Where collection in person is not possible, the Greek Language Proficiency Certificate may be sent by post upon the candidate's request. Postal or courier charges shall be borne by the successful candidate. For this purpose, candidates shall inform the SMG of their preferred courier or postal service and provide the full postal address to which the certificate is to be sent.

3. A replacement Greek Language Proficiency Certificate may be issued upon submission of the relevant application and payment of a fee of ten (10) euros to the bank account of the School of Modern Greek.

F. Final Provision

1. The School of Modern Greek reserves the right to amend these Regulations whenever deemed necessary and shall notify candidates of any such amendments in due time by any appropriate means.
