General Information

🎓Greek Language Proficiency

The Greek Language Certificates issued by the School of Modern Greek at the University of Cyprus cover six (6) proficiency levels: A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, and C2, as defined by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) of the Council of Europe.

Certification in Greek Language is awarded upon successful completion of final examinations, which may be taken:

- either after attending Greek language courses at the School (Final Examinations for School Students),
- or independently, without attending courses (Independent Certification Examinations).

All examinations, regardless of participation method, share the same structure, level of difficulty, and lead to the same officially recognized Greek Language Certificates, with full validity and recognition.

📜Recognition of Greek Language Certificates

The Greek Language Certificates issued by the School of Modern Greek are officially recognized by the Republic of Cyprus as valid proof of sufficient knowledge of the Greek language for purposes such as naturalization, employment, public sector appointments, and admission to higher education institutions in Cyprus.

State bodies such as the Public Service Commission and the Educational Service Commission accept the certificates School of Modern Greek at levels B2, C1 and C2 as valid documentation of Greek language proficiency (see here and here), while the Ministry of the Interior accepts the certificates of the School of Modern Greek at levels A2 and B1, for naturalization purposes (see here).

👩‍🏫Final Certification Exams for the Students of School of Modern Greek (Following Course Attendance)

All courses offered by the School of Modern Greek lead to Greek Language Proficiency Certification Exams, giving students the opportunity to officially validate their language skills.

For more information on the available programs (in-person or online), including scholarships, timetables, and tuition fees, please visit the Courses & Applications page.

⚠️ The examination fees for the Final Examinations are included in the students' tuition and no separate payment is required.

ⓘ All examinations, regardless of the mode of participation, follow the same structure and level of difficulty and lead to the issuance of the same official Greek Language Certificates, with full validity and recognition (see Greek Language Proficiency).
